Map speedup, calendar too college woes

By WILLIAM F. WINTER

A tentative map placing all territory within specific junior college districts is to be issued early, further complicating Quad-City's attempt to exercise a free choice, it was learned today.

Illinois Junior College Board guidelines give the Granite City, Madison and Venice community unit school districts until Dec. 1 to say whether they prefer to join the Belleville Area College or Lewis and Clark College at Godfrey.

The guidelines call for a proposed state map to be filed by Feb. 1, 1974, followed by filing of a final map by June 30.

However, the JCB staff has said it wants this community to be a part of Lewis and Clark. And it now says it is preparing the proposed map for issuance Nov. 16, with a public hearing Nov. 17.

The timing is crucial because local school systems have not yet been in a position to take up the Godfrey-or-Belleville question. Their request for a brand new district, Southwestern Community College, is still pending before the JCB.

Provision of junior college services is mandatory under Illinois law. The right of a school system to tax for college tuition payments expires next July 1.

After that, non-college-territory schools would still have to pay the tuition of their residents traveling to a junior college, but there would be no tax revenue to meet it. Instead, the tuition costs would have to be paid by squeezing out part of the public school systems' present services.

New junior college districts and annexations are to become effective as of Aug. 1, 1974.

Formation of a new district remains the first choice of the Quad-City boards of education and also of the study group formed a year ago by the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce.

Subtly and then openly, the JCB staff has placed obstacles in the path toward creating a new district. Its negative recommendation is awaiting action by the Junior College Board Oct. 19.

The next subsequent JCB meeting is Nov. 16.

There will be no Belleville Area College board meeting between the JCB's Oct. 19 meeting, when it may reject the Southwestern College petition, and the Nov. 16 JCB session, when the proposed statewide map is to be presented.

By a calendar quirk, the third Wednesday JCB board meetings will fall on Oct. 17 and Nov. 21.

If the Quad-Cities act to join a particular junior college, the board of that college "must by resolution filed with the JCB agree to such annexation" before the JCB would consider it. Even then, the JCB would not have to approve the requested annexation.

Has retained the hope of college self-determination apparently has been thinner than the study group was led to believe by JCB administrators.

The latter on several occasions have described multiple options and then quickly taken other steps which had the effect of negating most of the choices.

Now that the prospect of an entirely new district has become the target of perhaps mortal wounds inflicted by Dr. Fred I. Wellman, JCB executive secretary, and his staff, the principal remaining question is whether an annexation exists.

There would have been no local option unless the move for a new district was made by June 30, 1973.

The petitions which were filed by that date ask for an election to be held on creating a new district. That proposal is likely to be formally denied on Oct. 19, judging by the JCB staff's comments.

It has been assumed that, upon a rejection of Southwestern, local school boards could then designate the existing junior college which they prefer to join.

The original law permits a choice to be voiced if a non-college area adjoins two or more districts.

A newly-signed law changes "adjoining" to "near."

The Quad-Cities adjoin Lewis and Clark and also the Collinsville school system's boundaries. Collinsville Schools and BAC both have asked the JCB to place Collinsville in BAC, but the JCB has marked time on that request while hurrying to act regarding the Quad-Cities.

The Press-Record disclosed Sept. 17 that Dr. Wellman had said he would four days later at Freeport "recommend that the Tri-City area annex to Lewis and Clark Community College."

Actual consideration of the Southwestern petitions Sept. 21 was postponed at local residents' request until the Oct. 19 JCB session, to be held at Rend Lake.

Roy Barney dies

Roy C. Barney, 94, of 2553 Lynch Ave., a 63-year employee of the Granite City Trust and Savings Bank, where he was a vice-president and member of the board of directors, died at 5:30 p.m. Saturday at his home. He had been ill since Feb. 20.

Mr. Barney was a 50-year member of the American Bankers Association, secretary of the Sunset Trust Estates and member of the Sunset Hill Cemetery Association.

He was a member of the board of directors of the First Granite City Savings and Loan from 1932 until he became director emeritus in November 1969. He served as president of the First Saving bank from 1949 until 1969.

A member of the First United Presbyterian Church, Mr. Barney also belonged to Masonic Lodge 877, Scottish Rite Bodies, the York Rite, Commandery 81, low Twelve Club and Ainal Temple Shrine. He was a charter member of the Granite City alteration in front of a tavern in the 8700 block of Goodfellow Boulevard, authorities were told.

Witnesses said a man smashed a beer bottle and made comments to two young ladies before the altercation began. Mr. Miller approached the man, who fired one shot into the air and then shot Miller, detectives reported.

Donovan approached to find out what had happened and the gunman turned and shot him. Mr. Miller was dead at the scene and Donovan was taken to St. Louis City Hospital 1. He later was transferred to St. Louis County Hospital, where he was in satisfactory condition today.

St. Louis Sixth District city police chased the gunman's car several blocks; during the chase, four shots were fired at the police car.

Arrested was James Hauschild, 28, of 10435 Renfrew St., St. Louis County. He was charged with first-degree murder and two counts of assault with intent to kill.

Mr. Miller's body is at a St. Louis funeral home, where arrangements are pending.

Most students favor Belleville

Assuming that a junior college is mandatory and that the state will block formation of an entirely new college here, should the Quad-Cities join Belleville Area College at Belleville or Lewis and Clark Community College at Godfrey?

The decision may or may not be up to local residents. The Illinois Junior College Board could consider the wishes of taxpayers citizens here, but there is a possibility the JCB may decide that it knows best.

But assuming that the JCB will listen to Quad-Cityans, what is their preference?

One of the yardsticks may be the choice which has been made by those who benefit most directly from junior college services—the students.

By 253 to 128, those applying for tuition reimbursement have selected BAC rather than L&C.

The margin favoring Belleville by school systems is 303-121 in Granite City-Pontiac Beach-Mitchell, 397 in Madison and North Venice and 12-1 in South Venice-Eagle Park.

Other Granite City selections include Lakeland 2, Illinois Eastern 2, Sandburg 1 and Rend Lake, 1. Other Madison selections are Illinois Eastern 2, Lakeland 2, Parkland 2 and Kankakee, 1.

Tax rates of the two junior colleges for each $100 of assessed valuation are 27.4 cents for Lewis and Clark and 20.9 cents for Belleville. The proposed Southwestern rate is 20 cents.

Assessments total $500 million in BAC and $690 million in L&C.

Based on a $277 million Quad-City assessment, Lewis and Clark would collect $738,980 here each year. If this community was a part of BAC, the tax total would be $278,930, or $180,650 less.

Added to the BAC valuation, the $277 million local assessment probably would result in a lowering of the 20.9-cent rate, reducing the taxation here below the projected $578,830 figure.

This outlook of a tax reduction is the estimate of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce Junior College Study Committee, which foresees no such reduction if this community were annexed to L&C.

Lewis & Clark got a lightning-fast start on classroom instruction and instant accreditation by purchasing the former Monticello College.

But the attractive campus that was acquired contains many elderly buildings needing replacement with new structures as rapidly as L&C can generate the property taxes to supplement state funds.

The Study Committee says of Belleville Area College that its "25-year-old buildings indicate a stable and fiscally sound institution."

"The distance to BAC is approximately the same as the distance to the Godfrey campus of L&C."

Regarding Lewis & Clark, the committee found it has been "experiencing extremely heavy costs, perhaps partially due to the fact that it came into existence only a few years ago."

"The uncertainty of future operational cost factors of L&C, its continued growth to the north of Godfrey and into Greene, Pike, Calhoun and Jersey counties, and its need to spend its finances to improve its Godfrey campus were all factors determined unfavorable."

Some antagonism between L&C officials and Quad-Cityans developed when it was proposed that Edwardsville be detached from L&C to help form a new district along with Collinsville and the Quad-Cities.

The detachment idea was voted by Dr. Wellman rather than by local residents, however.

Relations between L&C administrators and some of their department heads and faculty members have become chaotic on several occasions, with a variety of charges hurled back and forth at mass meetings.

Although both the Quad-Cities and L&C are in Madison County and BAC is in St. Clair County, leading to the assumptions of close ties with Godfrey, there is considerable strain between the Alton-Godfrey area and this community.

Certain Alton interests have fomented disrepute for the Quad-Cities, partly in frustration from Alton's partial loss of influence over Madison County government.

Fewer Altonians and more Quad-Cityans are elected to county offices than was the case in past decades.

The Alton interests have "hit the ceiling" over the continuing junior college study, warning Altonians darkly this year about "the South Side gang."

Although it is not clear that the local area is synonymous with "corruption" and "Machine politics."

The executive board of the Cahokia Mound Boy Scout Council voted by secret ballot Oct. 2, with one abstention, to reject a proposed merger of the local Scout council and three other Illinois councils with the Greater St. Louis Council. It was the second time within a two-year period the board rejected the merger proposal involving Scout councils with headquarters at Wood River, Belleville, Herrin, Granite City and St. Louis. The vote was taken in a meeting Thursday night at the Granite City Trust and Savings Bank.

C. Berger Graves, chairman of the North Central Region's Area Three administrative committee, made the presentation for the merger.

Dr. Thomas Layloff Jr., activities chairman of the Cahokia Mound Council, presented opposing views. Dr. Layloff noted that management theorists of today are generally in favor of smaller administrative units as this tends to build deeper individual commitments and feelings of responsibility.

Dr. Layloff said merger would mean loss of identity, reduction of professional staff

Club gives momentum to drive

The Tri-Cities Area United Way campaign has received a strong boost due to successful efforts by the Labor-Management Torch Club at Granite City Steel Co., statistics released today disclosed.

The United Way drive began last week and the first report meeting is set for the YMCA, 20th Street and Edison Avenue, at noon Wednesday, when a luncheon will be served.

It will be a "Dutch treat" $2.25 meal in keeping with the tradition of limiting campaign expenses to a minimum.

Proceeds of the annual fall United Way drive help finance operating costs of 18 Quad City area service agencies during the coming calendar year.

The Tri-Cities Area United Way is one of the programs aided by the Torch Club (formerly 30-Minute Club) at Granite City Steel.

With some club reports not yet tabulated, the solicitation among employees of the steel firm has garnered an additional 16,350 minutes of monthly contributions.

A minute a month equals 12 minutes a year, and based on average pay for the current year it is the equivalent of about $1 per minute. Thus, the 16,350 extra minutes are expected to provide about $16,350 in additional funds available for contribution in 1974.

The new and increased payroll deductions will begin in the first payday of 1974. Carl Baczenas, chairman of the Torch Club board of governors today praised employees who have made pledges.

He thanked the campaign committee of Bob Bueglin, Jack Moser and Ed Boyer for organizing the campaign effort, and supervisors who helped make individual contacts.

"Our club has been on dead center for several years, but this successful campaign has raised our sights to levels we hadn't felt possible before," Baczenas said.

"Our success should inspire the community to follow our example in the United Way campaign that its goal can be met."

The Torch Club board is made up of labor and management representatives.

Each of the ten union locals with labor agreements at the steel plant is invited to have its representatives as a member of the Torch Club board, while management employees are represented by six members.

Trustees are Ed Boyer of Local 67, Stanley Banaszak of Local 30 and Carl O'Brien, Granite City Steel Co. vice-president and controller.

The gain of 16,350 minutes—a figure expected to rise further—equals an estimated gain of 13 per cent over the previous membership level.

GAS CRISIS VICTIM

Shirley Rapoff, 2553 Edison Ave., was among the many victims of the gasoline panic here. She noticed Thursday that thieves, who apparently did not wish to wait in the long lines at the service stations, had siphoned the gasoline from the tank of her auto in her driveway overnight.

Rodger Teller, 18, of 4 Meridian Hills, Glen Carbon, was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital at 8:05 a.m. Friday after he was involved in a motorcycle accident on Interstate 270. He suffered abrasions to both knees, his left thigh and right elbow.

Beginning today, due to the national newspaper shortage, some pages of the Press-Record will vary in width or color. As soon as the shortage ends, use of full-width white pages will be resumed.

October in Illinois history — financial panic a century ago

The big news in Illinois one hundred years ago—October 1873—was the famous financial panic that had started in the East in mid-September and was beginning to be felt in the Midwest.

Although newspapers did not then suspect it, the Panic of 1873 was to be followed by one of the worst depressions in the nation's history.

The basic causes were worldwide: the American Civil War and the Franco-Prussian and Austro-Prussian wars in Europe; the opening of the Suez Canal; and overinvestment in railroads in Europe, South America and the United States—as well as other forms of speculation.

The first result was the failure of several large eastern firms followed by a 10-day closing of the New York Stock Exchange.

The development of Illinois' share in this catastrophe can be traced in the files of more than 110 newspapers of the period in the Illinois State Historical Library's collection of 40,000 reels of microfilm of the state's newspapers.

The era was at the beginning of Illinoisan Ulysses S. Grant's second term as President—he was inaugurated the preceding March 4.

John L. Beveridge, Illinois' lieutenant governor, had become governor on Jan. 23, when Richard J. Oglesby resigned ten days into his second term to accept a seat in the U. S. Senate.

Chicago had been practically reconstructed since the Great Fire of October 1871, and to celebrate this accomplishment a "Great Inter-State Industrial Exposition" was being held. The railroads were running special excursion trains to the city.

With each issue, most newspapers professed to see signs that business was improving—but at the same time they were reporting new bankruptcies.

Many Illinois banks either closed or suspended operations. When the Aurora correspondent for the Chicago Inter-Ocean saw a local bank president hurrying downtown early one morning, he became alarmed but learned "the man of greenbacks had forgotten the previous evening to get any breakfast."

That "man of greenbacks" possibly had other worries but he probably did not have to worry too much about the price of "breakfast for breakfast."

During that October, prime 3- to 5-year-old steers weighing 1,200 to 1,400 pounds were selling for $5.25 to $5.60 per hundred pounds.

The price of wheat was 93 cents to $1.05 per bushel, depending on quality, and corn was selling for 36 cents a bushel.

After a survey of the financial district, the Chicago Tribune proclaimed on Oct. 2 that "The worst is over."

A week later the Illinois State Journal (Springfield) commented, "While the recent panic afforded an excellent opportunity for suspension of a church and benevolent contributions, no places of amusement were closed, nor were their receipts diminished in consequence of the monetary scare."

Advertisements in the Tribune that month were for a variety of entertainment fare: "The Globe, which called itself 'The People's Theater,' was showing 'Red Bunline and His Dashing Scouts.' McVicker's Theater was presenting a revival of 'last season's greatest success,' 'Saratoga.'"

The show at Hooley's Theater—"The Parlor Home of Comedy"—was "H. A. Webster's powerful dramatization of Wilkie Collins' Great Novel, 'Man and Wife.'"

Entertaining at Myers' Opera House were Arlington, Cotton and Kemble's Minstrels.

At that time the Illinois State Journal published a column on page 2 of each issue titled "State News" and consisting of one-sentence notes.

Some samples from October, 1873: "Fox hunting is coming in vogue in Macon County."

"Wolves have been troublesome in some parts of Lake County of late."

Faces 3 charges

Floyd Lee Wallace, 2100 Rock Road, was taken to the Madison County Jail at Edwardsville last week in lieu of $2,500 bond on charges of driving while intoxicated, illegal transportation of liquor and driving while his license was revoked.

He was arrested at 20th Street and Madison Avenue by Granite City police. He paid a $15 fine on another charge, having an improper muffler, after pleading guilty to that charge. He pleaded innocent on the remaining three charges.

New insurance program

A new insurance program for Granite City employees under which the city expects to save approximately $28,000 per year and still provide employees with the same coverage they now have, was approved by the City Council at a regular meeting last week.

The change will give the city's health insurance to the Golden Rule Insurance Co., based at Lawrenceville, Ill., and the life insurance coverage to State Farm Insurance Co.

The program was presented by the council's Finance Committee, headed by Alderman Gerald Parmley. The new plan was approved on a motion by Ronald Coleman, a member of the Finance Committee.

Insurance coverage provided by the two firms will replace Blue Cross and the Fort Dearborn Insurance Co. which now provides health insurance and life insurance, respectively.

Parmley noted that although 15 insurance companies picked up specifications to bid on insurance, only two bids were received. He said this was due to the city's "poor experience" in insurance claims.

Coleman also obtained approval of a motion calling for a resolution that former city employees who still carry group insurance they originally had with the city, not be included in the city insurance program as part of the group.

He said present ordinances provide for group inclusion of disabled or retired employees, but that the city should not include persons who were defeated in elections or dismissed in a change of administration.

Coleman and Parmley also explained that while the premiums paid to the new insurance carriers will be $2,841 more than the cost under the existing program with Blue Cross and the Fort Dearborn company—the total cost will be $38,000 less than the present program would have been under a rate increase projected by these companies for the year.

'Junk' playground big success with pupils

It may look like an abandoned construction company yard, but the youngsters at the Russell D. Johnson elementary school on Old Alton Road think it's heaven.

Actually it is a "junk" playground built on the concept that one man's junk can be a child's treasure.

The idea for the playground is that of Miss Dorothy Bailey, physical education teacher at Johnson School, who chose the site, drew the blueprints and presented the details to the PTA which approved the project.

Much of the equipment for the new playground was donated. American Steel Foundries contributed the railroad ties for the numerous balance bridges. Materials and work on the climbing structure were given by Iron Electric Co. The log was made possible by Illinois Power Co., and the Granite City Street Department delivered concrete culverts for the children to use as tunnels.

Many hours of labor to install the equipment were given by Mrs. John Apperson, president of the PTA, her husband and other members of the Russell D. Johnson School PTA. The limited expense of concrete and paint was paid by the PTA.

All of the equipment is bolted in place to afford maximum safety. Any size child can use the playground for the equipment is large and sturdy and capable of supporting many children at one time.

The project is far from finished, Miss Bailey said. The log cabin suitable for climbing or playing inside will be constructed this fall, along with the installation of a "helicopter" which will be bolted to a concrete pad and child-proofed.

Richard Brinkhoff, principal of the school, said, "This innovative idea in playgrounds has been tried in many schools over the country, but most have been unsuccessful due to lack of interest and apathetic attitudes. Not so in our case. We have the best I have seen anywhere."

Miss Bailey noted, "Our playground has been a gleaming spot so noticeable in normal playgrounds. The fantastic things about all of it is that it has so many PTA very little. This type of playground enables the children to explore freely and creatively. It is a valuable tool in physical education class, teaching basic concepts of movement, while using the problem-solving approach."

Mrs. Apperson said, "This is a very worthy project for the PTA, bringing many parents and teachers working together in harmony for the children."

BALANCE BRIDGE is only one piece of home-made equipment on 'junk' playground built with donated materials at Russell D. Johnson elementary school, and which has proved a big success with the youngsters. PTA members helped build and install the equipment such as balance bridges, log runs and climbing structures.

Say what you believe even if it brings defeat—Hart

Speaking here on material brought out in his new book "Right From the Start," Gary Hart, director of Sen. George S. McGovern's 1972 presidential campaign, advocated the "new politics" which he said is "saying what you believe and standing behind it."

Hart spoke in a panel discussion Thursday afternoon in the University Center at SIUE on the McGovern campaign organization.

The key word in the 1972 campaign was "perception," Hart said.

"In the 1960s, the key word was simple charisma," he said, "but the McGovern campaign laid the term charisma to rest."

In 1972 just as John Mitchell laid the term "law and order" to rest.

Some of the basic problems encountered in the McGovern campaign, according to Hart, were also what attracted many people to the senator. Three of these factors were:

McGovern's faith in people, a decentralized campaign organization, and the unsystematic ways in which campaign ideas were formed.

Discussing the strategy of President Nixon's campaign in 1972, Hart said the Nixon campaign played indirectly on people's fears and "prostituted the language and culture of the American people." He compared Nixon's 1972 campaign strategy to that used on the German people in the 1930s.

Hart answered a question on the Eagleton episode with another question: "What kind of background check was done on Agnew in 1967?" he asked.

"One reason McGovern lost the election in 1972 was because there was a lack of liberal thinking at the time," he said.

Another reason Hart cited was the length of time for campaigning for a general election after the nomination was won. Three months was not enough time, especially after the replacement of vice president nominee, Hart said.

Cong. Price active on fuel inflation, Tech Center here

Congressman Melvin Price has sent fuel report forms to area school districts which may face shortages of fuel oil and gasoline this winter.

Once completed and returned to the Office of Oil and Gas, the reports will assist that office in dealing with individual cases of fuel need.

Price advises that other organizations or individuals in need of a fuel supply should write him for the form. Included with the form will be other fuel information and a sample report.

Rep. Price, chairman of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy, last week conducted "Phase II" hearings on nuclear reactor safety, during which the committee heard testimony from officials of the Atomic Energy Commission and other agencies concerned with nuclear safety.

During Phase II of the hearings, scheduled for a latter date, the committee will hear testimony from representatives of the nuclear community, environmental groups and the public at large.

On Tuesday, Rep. Price took to the floor of the House to tell his colleagues that our nation's senior citizens have been hardest hit by the inflationary spiral of Phase IV economic policies.

The congressman explained that elderly persons are harder pressed to keep up with rising prices because of their fixed incomes.

Emphasizing that rising food costs now consume 26 per cent of a senior citizen's disposable income, Price said that meat and even meat substitutes are now out of reach.

He also spoke of housing problems faced by the elderly. While 35 per cent of their income is taken by uncontrolled rental costs—and a recent government survey reported that six million elderly live in inadequate housing—the Administration has imposed and 18-month moratorium on federally assisted housing programs, he asserted.

"Health care is another costly item to the senior citizen," Price said as he suggested that Medicare be expanded to include dental work, eye and ear care and prescription drugs.

Rep. Price has contacted Health, Education and Welfare Secretary Casper Weinberger concerning funding cuts in basic adult education and vocational programs.

Noting that his district is being particularly hard hit by the cutoff, Price urged HEW to "expedite restoration of the funding crisis," or "important social service programs will be terminated without making adequate provisions for the recipients."

The Venice-Lincoln Technical Center, once federally funded, faces an uncertain future due to federal level program changes. An adult education center in East St. Louis has been similarly affected.

Suit filed burned child

A $300,000 suit has been filed against four defendants on behalf of a child severely burned May 3, 1972, in West Granite City.

The charcoal lighter allegedly purchased by Hirtz from Schermer Brothers Market and was taken by several boys after Hirtz allegedly left it on his back porch.

The suit was filed by First Granite City National Bank, guardian of the child's estate.

Skate School sign-up

Youngsters planning to take part in "Skate School" classes at Wilson Park rink this season must register and pay the instruction fee in advance, Harold Brown, park district superintendent, announced today.

The rink will open for public skating Sunday and registration fees will be accepted during the regular skating sessions at the facility. Brown said the fee will be limited to 12 or 15 pupils and will be given out Saturday, Oct. 13, continuing for six weekly sessions of instruction. A final session will be devoted to testing. Brown said. Cost of the series is $3 for a resident of the Granite City Park District who shows a park district identification card. A $5 per person fee will be charged a non-resident. Those holding discipline cards will be given priority in the limited class space, Brown advised.

Instruction in basic freestyle and gamma level skating will be held from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. each Saturday. Beginners and alpha and beta levels will be taught from 11:30 a.m. until 12:30 p.m.

Arrest 2 after Pop Dock burglary

Kevin Jones, 17, of 4912 Kirkpatrick Homes, and Steve Muller, 21, of 294 Kirkpatrick Homes, were charged after burglary at 1 a.m. Friday after an incident at the Pop Dock, 2526 Nameoki Road.

Muller, who also was charged with resisting arrest, was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital after lacerations to his head and face. Officers reported force had to be used to subdue him.

Police responded to a report of water coming from inside the building under the door. When an officer looked in a window, he reportedly saw a youth inside.

He saw the youth start to crawl out a rear window, ran around the building and arrested him while the youth was halfway out of the window, it was contended.

He told officers a man was inside. Police had John Mosely, 2811 Palmer Ave., owner of the building, open the doors and went inside. The man was found lying behind a bathroom door, they said.

The front office and two rooms behind had been ransacked and a torch had been moved near the safe, police said. Two van trucks outside had smashed windows and an undetermined quantity of soft drinks had been stolen from the trucks, it was alleged.

Bicyclist, 9 is injured

Kelly McDaniel, 9, of 865 Chappo Drive, Mineola, was hurt when his bicycle and the car of Venita Bauman, 2412 Glen Place, collided in the 2800 block of National Avenue at 4:45 p.m. Thursday. The motorist said he was southbound on National Avenue and another bicyclist was chasing the boy's bicycle north when the collision occurred.

The boy was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was treated for abrasions and contusions to his right elbow, both knees and both ankles. X-rays were taken and he was released.

Mobile home tax bills due soon

Springfield — Some mobile home owners in Illinois may be getting additional tax bills shortly.

The new tax, which is commonly called the mobile home privilege tax, came into being on Aug. 28, when Gov. Daniel Walker signed the legislation into law. In 1971, then Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie signed a similar law but it was later declared unconstitutional. It was declared unconstitutional before the taxes could be computed so the bills never were sent.

But it must be pointed out that the new law applies only to the mobile homes which are not presently resting on a permanent foundation. Under the provisions of the law the entire mobile home must be resting on a permanent foundation. In the past in Illinois, mobile homes that have been on permanent foundations have been classified as a permanent home for tax purposes. Such mobile homes apparently will remain in that same classification.

Since Walker signed the law many tax assessors have been busy registering the mobile homes and trying to determine the square footage.

Also under the provisions of the new law even if the mobile home is owned by a corporation it is subject to the tax.

In many counties the mobile home owners have been billed under personal property tax laws. But there has not been distinctions made as to whether or not it was a mobile home. The new tax calls for a rate of 12.6 cents per square foot for the period of Aug. 28 through June 30, 1974. Thereafter it will be 15 cents per square foot.

State tax officials estimate that the average mobile home is from about 12 feet to 15 feet wide and 60 feet to 70 feet long. A mobile home owner can take his own measurements and figure out his own tax bill. It is believed that the larger counties may end up getting additional tax funds. Exact figures can't be determined at this time.

Selective Service director replaced

Springfield — Illinois Selective Service Director Dean Sweet is being removed from his $20-a-year post by Gov. Daniel Walker.

Walker plans to replace Sweet, a Republican and one-time Sangamon County treasurer, with Lt. Col. William Robert Kinschiff, a one-time Illinoisan now with the California Selective Service office.

Sweet said he learned he was being replaced not from Walker but in a telegram from National Selective Service System director Byron Peplone.

Peplone told Sweet Walker had recommended Kinschiff for the post and he would assume the appointment Oct. 15. Sweet's last day on the job will be Oct. 12. State selective service directors are appointed by the President on the recommendation of the governor.

As a matter of practice, the President names whomever the governor nominates.

Sweet, who assumed the post in December 1970 upon the recommendation of then Gov. Richard Ogilvie, chalked up his dismissal to politics.

The Springfield Republican, who has steered clear of politics since his appointment, said he is only the fourth person to hold the post since 1940 and past governors regarded the appointment as non-political. He came into the post because John Hammack resigned.

Sweet also said the Illinois director "has always been a civilian." Sweet retired recently from the Illinois National Guard with the rank of brigadier general but wasn't on active duty as is his successor.

He also said it was his understanding his successor has a brother who was active in Walker's campaign.

"It's unfortunate that politics has to enter into this," Sweet said. "It's unfortunate for the citizens of Illinois that they have to bring someone in from out of state. The fortunate aspect is that Selective Service will have someone who has experience in the field."

Clark, assistant press secretary to the governor, said Walker was replacing Sweet "for the same reason he replaces anybody else in cabinet level positions, he wants his own people."

Clark also maintained nobody in the governor's office was familiar with a Kinschiff having played a role in Walker's campaign.

Ice rink improvement

The Granite City Park District board discussed the installation of plex-glass panels at the Wilson Park ice rink to protect the rink from rain and snow and still provide sufficient light without the use of electric lights, at its meeting Wednesday night.

Members of the board authorized Harold Brown, superintendent of parks, to secure bids on the cost of the glass and installation.

Also approved was the purchase of a new cooling tower pump at a cost of $379.

Other purchases approved include an ice machine for the concession stand at a cost of $1,370, and equipment for the Lincoln Place Community Center, including a pool table, drapes for two windows and small recreation games at a total amount of $555.

A learn-to-skate program will be held again this year and will cost the park district residents $3 for the full course and non-residents $6.

Park Commissioners Paul Thompson, Robert Patrick and Jake Hinterser will attend the National Park and Recreation Conference in Washington, D. C. Sunday through Oct. 4. The Illinois Park and Recreation conference will be held at the Arlington Towers in Arlington Heights, Ill. Nov. 15-18.

The annual Sports Award banquet planned for Monday, Nov. 19, at the Granite City High School-South cafeteria, will have Dal Maxwell as one of the featured speakers, it was reported.

Two change orders were approved in conjunction with work on the garage and maintenance buildings. They include a $68 fee for additional excavating and concrete work and the park district residents service to the existing building at a cost of $977.

The treasurer's report listed a balance of $40,622 as of Sept. 18, with U.S. Treasury bills of $30,000 maturing Sept. 25 and $70,000 maturing Oct. 25.

Tax payments received by the Park District treasurer from the county treasurer totaling $193,882 were invested in treasury bills at an interest rate of 7.8 per cent, the board was told.

Permission was granted to the Amateur Soccer Association for Women to use the soccer field in Wilson Park on Sunday afternoons from 1 to 6 p.m. for league play.

Supt. Brown announced the rink will open on Sunday, Oct. 7, and will close March 31. Plans were approved to permit the Granite City Amateur Hockey Association to hold its A and B tournaments on Monday April 1.

April program brochures are now completed and will be distributed to the schools on Oct. 10. They include new programs this fall for an adult art program, cake decorating, boating and square dancing for adults.

A contract will be completed with Charles Lee of Collinsville, to plow, disc and harrow the ten acres at Worthen Park at $7.50 per hour for approximately 30 hours a week, the lowest bid secured by the board.

Cancer donations set new record

The American Cancer Society, Madison County Unit, has achieved its campaign goal again this year, and set a new record.

At the end of the fiscal year, the unit had raised $65,537 for the society's three-fold program of research, service and education. This is $5,890 more than was raised the year before.

James R. Heil, county crusade chairman for the Cancer Society, attributed this success to the continually increasing amount of interest that people are showing in the fight against cancer. Heil said he wished to thank everyone who helped make this success possible.

Of the total contributions, $8,871 was collected in the Quad City area, as follows: Granite City, $6,824; Madison, $1,222 and Venice, $825.

ARRESTED ON WARRANT
Madison and Venice police arrested Harold Walker, 29, of 21 Greiner Homes, Madison, at 11:45 p.m. Friday at Bissell and Klein streets in Venice on a warrant charging him with battery.

A long St. Louis newspaper strike bargaining meeting began yesterday and ended early today.

Most St. Louis-St. Louis County government services resumed operations today. Many had closed for several days to protest a wholesale retail price squeeze.

While believing that his political career has been destroyed by rumors of alleged Maryland governmental practices, Vice President Spiro T. Agnew emphasized he is innocent in a talk to Republican women at Los Angeles Saturday.

Mr. Agnew said he will not resign even if he is indicted. He blamed the Justice Department for "unfounded, unclear, unsubstantiated accusations," adding that some officials sought to end his effectiveness through "abuse of the criminal justice system."

St. Louis Mayor John P. Poelker indicated today he will urge federal delay of a proposed Illinois airport.

The farm price index dropped.

Leaf burning ban may be lifted

Madison firemen begin 'tot finder' program

The "Tot Finder" program will begin at 6:30 p.m. Monday in the City of Madison it was announced today by Fire Chief Eldon B. Rhoads.

Basic of the program is a red "Tot Finder" decal, highly visible during the day and reflective from a light source at night which marks the location of a child's room. Should fire strike, the decal alerts firemen to clear the marked areas first.

Madison firemen will visit homes and assist residents in placing the decals.

Primary locations for the weather-resistant decals, according to Rhoads, are windows of children's rooms facing outside and at the bottom of interior doors facing into the hallway.

"Children account for over one third of the nation's fire casualties and in the confusion of night, families often become separated and all too frequently the result is a child trapped in his room, cut off from rescue," Rhoads said.

The program is designed to help avert this tragedy, he commented.

permission to attend the police union's annual meeting Sunday through Tuesday in Peoria.

One bid was received from Ed Moore Construction Co. for the city to purchase a five-to-eight ton asphalt roller for $3,862. The bid was referred to the purchasing committee and the superintendent of streets.

Bills totaling $25,383 were ordered paid.

and other thoughts on stretching your energy dollar.

☐ Every time you use your washing machine, you're paying for enough electricity and hot water to wash a full load, no matter how few clothes you put in the machine.

☐ When your machine goes through its cycle just to wash a pair of jeans and a few socks, you've wasted money, water, and electricity.

☐ And when you finish off that skimpy load in your clothes dryer, there's more money and energy wasted.

☐ Skimpy loads waste energy—one of the vital resources we're all trying to conserve these days. With a little planning, you can wash and dry only when you have a full load. And fewer loads add up to a tidy savings on your fuel and water bills during a year.

☐ At Illinois Power Company, providing energy is our business. But using energy wisely is everybody's business. We want to help our customers get the most from every dollar they spend on electricity and gas. For advice on the wise use of any appliance, call our Home Economist.

Gateway delays action on regional treatment plan

The executive board of the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council has extended for one month any action on an application for U.S. funds to help finance a proposed $2.8 million regional sewage treatment plant.

The board acted on a motion by Mayor Mike Sasyk of Madison who, with Mayor John E. Lee of Venice, have opposed the new program which would serve the Venice-Madison areas through a new treatment upgrading facility in East St. Louis and Cahokia.

Sasyk and Lee have favored construction of their own treatment plant in the vicinity of the present Landowne Treatment plant operated by the East Side Levee and Sanitary District.

The grant application prepared by the Southwest Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission was recommended by the executive advisory council of East-West Gateway last week and recommended for approval of the executive board.

Executive board members approved Sasyk's motion to upgrade the advisory council recommendation, at least for the time being.

Mr. Sasyk said the Venice-Madison area is a "satellite" area of the East Side Levee and Sanitary District. Local scout

The 55 councils of the North Central Region, and first in the 17 councils of Area Three in person, based on the percentage of youth membership increase over last year. The councils were ranked in order of all the other four councils.

Dr. George T. Wilkins Sr., former state supervisor, gave instruction for Illinois and currently active on the state's school problems commission. He said the board of school administrators feel that any school district dealing with more than 10,000 children should be merged into an individual district.

Dr. Wilkins noted that the Chicago School system currently is considering breaking down into 25 separate districts rather than the current one massive unit.

Dr. Wilkins said he feels that this is true of Scouting and that he is opposed to merger.

Every board member was allowed two-minute comments by E. Ray Grisham, chairman of the meeting. A member of the board spoke in favor of the merger.

It was the feeling of the board that if the merger really would benefit the boys and leaders, they would favor it, but that nothing but vague promises and misguided theories were made in the proposal.

Chairman Grisham was instructed by the board to draft a letter to the National Council president, and several area and national volunteers and professional Scouters to inform them that the Cahokia Mound Council board is "tired of being badgered" by representatives of the National Council with the merger plan and to further inform the National Council that even though the merger would benefit Scouting, it would harm the National Council, but until that time the issue is closed.

Marcia Kay Scott and Stanley Hunt are wed

Miss Marcia Kay Scott, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Scott, 2432 Grand Ave. and Stanley E. Hunt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hunt, 1492 Ladd St., Edwardsville, were married at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon at St. Boniface Catholic Church in Edwardsville.

Bouquets of white gladiolus and 'mums' in fall shades decorated the altar for the double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. William Maul.

Bill Bullard presided at the organ and provided a program of wedding selections.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown fashioned of white Nottingham lace with a delicately designed yoke and high collar. The long bishop style sleeves were made with very wide cuffs, terminating in a lace ruffle at the wrists.

The fluid lines of the skirt were enhanced with a chapel length train, sweeping gracefully over the waistline. She wore a lace headpiece centered with a white satin ribbon and bow to secure her bouffant shoulder length veil of bridal illusion and she carried a cascade of white roses and carnations.

Mrs. Steve Knogl, a sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. She selected a gown of gold and green floral fabric made with a sweetheart neckline, puff sleeves and an Empire waistline.

She wore a gold colored picture hat trimmed with green velvet ribbon. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Pat Jenne, Mrs. Don Wolf and Mrs. Charles Thomas, were gowned in identical dresses and wore green picture hats accented with gold ribbons.

Suzette Dreese, the flower girl, appeared in a frock similar in style to the adult attendants' dresses. She had a gold velvet ribbon in her hair. Each of the girls held a bouquet of gold poms and greenery.

The groom chose Steve Knogl, a brother-in-law of the bride, as best man. Russell Rhymmer, the groom's brother-in-law, Donald J. Poms and Jim Keller were groomsmen.

Seating the guests were Don Wolf and Gary Kreiger and the ringbearer was Steven Knogl, a nephew of the bride.

A reception was held in the church hall following the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunt, parents of the groom, hosted a rehearsal dinner in their home Friday evening.

A graduate of Granite City High School, the former Miss Scott attended Washington University and is now employed by Provident Insurance Co. She is a member of the Gateway East Artist Guild.

The groom was graduated from Edwardsville High School and Belleville Junior College and attended Rankin Technical School in St. Louis. He now works at Otis Manufacturing Co., Alton.

After a wedding trip the newly married couple will reside in Glen Carbon.

PICTURE FRAMES: CUSTOM MADE. GC GLASS, 18th & EDISON

MRS. STANLEY E. HUNT, the former Miss Marcia Kay Scott, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Scott, 2432 Grand Ave. She was married Saturday afternoon at St. Boniface Catholic Church in Edwardsville.

Miss Lynda Lear becomes Mrs. Wilbur Cunningham

Miss Lynda Carol Lear and Wilbur Eugene Cunningham exchanged wedding vows in an afternoon ceremony on Sept. 22 at St. John United Church of Christ, 2801 Nameoki Road.

Bouquets of yellow and white flowers adorned the altar and hurricane lamps illuminated the white carpeted aisle for the 1 o'clock double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Carl Eschenbrenner.

Mrs. Irene Barrick, church organist, provided a program of nuptial music.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Wanda Lear, 718 Twenty-sixth place. Mr. Cunningham is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Cunningham, Rural Route Four, Jerseyville, Ill.

Max Boyd of Collinsville, an uncle of the bride, escorted her to the altar and gave her in marriage. She wore an A-line silhouette gown of white polyester sateau. The V neckline was edged with a self fabric ruffle, accented with a delicate Venise lace trim etched with seed pearls.

Matching lace motifs defined the high waistline and formed vertical rows on the slightly full skirt. The bishop style sleeves were caught at the elbow with a row of lace to accent the fullness and secured at the wrists with lace cuffs.

She wore a headpiece of Venise lace petals embellished with seed pearls to hold in place her melody length veil of imported bridal illusion.

Her bouquet was a modified colonial arrangement of yellow gladiolus florettes and white Sweetheart roses with carnella foliage.

Miss Linda Brown, maid of honor, was gowned in a flocked daisy print dress, peach colored, made with a V neckline and A-line skirt.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Michael Jones, Miss Mary Sporek, Miss Teresa Lesinski,

MR. AND MRS. WILBUR CUNNINGHAM. They were united in marriage at St. John United Church of Christ. The bride is the former Miss Lynda Carol Lear, a daughter of Mrs. Wanda Lear, 718 Twenty-sixth Place. (Lazenby Photo) chose rainbow colors for their gowns. All were designed in similar style to the honor attendant's dress.

Miss Cheryl Ann Cunningham, a sister of the groom, and Miss Shelly Cohen Boyd, a cousin of the bride, were junior bridesmaids. They wore white princess style frocks.

Each attendant wore a wide brimmed hat with streamers in colors to match their dresses as well as a bouquet of yellow and white poms.

Pamela Sue Nazelwonder, flower girl, a cousin of the groom, chose a pink princess style frock trimmed at the high rise waistline with white lace. Deron Boyd, the bride's cousin, was the ringbearer.

Jack Jenkins was best man. Groomsmen and ushers included Michael Jones, Larry Dunham, Jerry Sladky, William and Terry Lear, brothers of the bride, and Anthony Coleman.

Mrs. Lear selected a sky blue formal length gown centered with long sleeves and complemented with black accessories. She wore a yellow and white carnation corsage.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Cunningham, was attired in a full length dress fashioned with a white bodice and a softly gathered skirt of floral print. Her accessories were in matching shades and she wore a corsage of yellow and white carnations.

A reception was given in the church hall following the ceremony. Misses Lea Day and Chris Nazelwonder attended the guest book.

A graduate of Granite City High School, the bride is employed at Schermer Essen Hardware. Her husband was graduated from Jerseyville High School and is a junior year student at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. He also manages the Cameo Theatre in Alton.

Barton-Brown nuptial vows heard at Pontoon Baptist

Miss Claudia Ann Brown became the bride of Larry Dean Barton at 6 o'clock evening service on Sept. 22 at the Pontoon Beach Baptist Church. The Rev. Gus Falter Jr. officiated at the double ring ceremony before an altar adorned with golden candles holding lighted blue tapers.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Brown, 4538 Maryville Road. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin D. Barton, 2332 Orville St.

Preceding the bride down the white carpeted aisle were Ruth Anderson, Debbie Barton, a sister of the groom, Peggy McKinnon and Jeanne Carver, the latter two cousins of the bride.

They were dressed alike in gown of blue floral print voile over taffeta designed in Empire style and accented with velvet trim and streamers.

Their dresses featured long sleeves and matching jackets with touches of ivory lace on the collars.

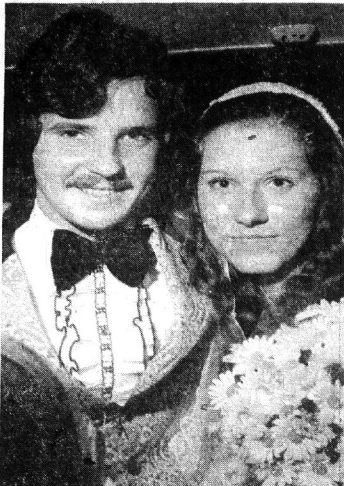

Each girl wore a blue picture hat and carried a natural plateau basket filled with white roses and white satin bows.

Mr. Brown escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore a white Chantilly lace gown fashioned with a fitted bodice, stand up collar and long lace sleeves.

Tiers of lace ruffles over taffeta created the bouffant skirt and extended into a chapel length train. Both the bodice and bridal veil were lavishly embroidered with tiny pearls and crystals and the latter was secured to a Victorian style cap.

The former Miss Brown carried a cascade of silk flowers intermingled with white daisies, blue forget-me-nots and English ivy.

Marsha Roland, a cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She chose a long white dress and wore a garland of blue daisies and baby breath in her hair. Her flowers were white roses, blue daisies and baby breath arranged in a small plateau basket.

Thomas Tritschuh served as best man. Dale Zimmerman, Terry Dement, a cousin of the groom, Walter Vivod, Robert Brown, a brother of the bride, and Marvin Barton, a cousin of the groom, completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

During the ceremony Kevin Roger presided at the organ and accompanied Becky Flanagan, soloist, as she sang "First Time Ever I Saw Your Face," "A Time For Us" and "The Wedding March."

Chapter KU begins year

Chapter KU of the PEO Sisterhood resumed its fall schedule of meetings last week at the home of Mrs. Hulda Davis, 3718 Fair Oaks Drive. Nineteen were present and were served a dessert course by the hostess.

Mrs. Fay Carlisle, president, conducted the business session and announced that Mrs. Bessie Coudige will travel to New Orleans, La., this week to attend the organization's national convention as delegate from Chapter KU. The four-day conference will conclude Saturday.

Wedding traditions were reviewed by Mrs. Ruth McCarty, who gave the program, using a Lily of the valley as the focal theme.

The evening concluded with the presentation of a wedding gift to Mrs. Eunice Witter, club member and a recent bride.

Charitable projects, style show to mark National Beauty Salon Week

By VALERIE EVENDEN
Press-Record Staff Writer

During the current week, members of the Quad-Cities Elite Hairdressers and Cosmetologists, Affiliate 33, will join with more than 60,000 members of the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association to celebrate National Beauty Salon Week.

Several special events to mark the traditional observance are now taking place in the Quad-Cities and will continue throughout the week, according to Mrs. Margaret Scott, Affiliate 33 president.

Today, volunteers from the local hairdressers' chapter are providing free shampoos, sets, hair cuts and permanents for senior residents at the Anchorage Homes in Granite City.

Lectures on good grooming and beauty care are planned, together with educational programs for licensed beauticians. A "king and queen" cosmetology contest also is underway.

The celebration will climax Sunday with a gala show in which the latest clothing fashions and the newest trends in hair styling will be displayed.

The public show will take place at 2 p.m. Sunday at the Croatian Home, 10th Street and Madison Avenue. Tickets, costing $1.50 each, may be obtained in advance from most beauty salons, or can be purchased at the door Sunday afternoon, Mrs. Scott advised.

To commemorate the week-long observance, a proclamation has been issued by Mayor Paul Schuler of Granite City. The document states in part: "Whereas,

National Beauty Salon Week will be observed in our community, as well as through the nation, during the week of Oct. 1, 1973 by the 60,000 members of the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association, and

"Whereas, the members of this national professional association of cosmetologists, established in 1921, to further the highest standards of professional beauty care, have through their training and creative talents, enhanced and maintained one of our nation's greatest wealths, the feminine beauty of America, "Now do I hereby proclaim the week of Oct. 1, 1973 as National Beauty Salon Week and commend it and its theme, 'Your Hairdresser Does It Better,' to the attention of our citizens in order to recognize the Cosmetologists for their dedicated services to the grooming of women for greater beauty."

Mrs. Scott said the observance started in 1951 when beauticians were asked to set aside a period of time to devote themselves to charitable endeavors and to project the new image of the latest hair styles.

During the week, services, products and man hours, representing millions of dollars, are donated to the elderly, disabled and sick and to institutions for young children and girls, Mrs. Scott explained.

The national organization was established in 1921 for the purpose of welding hairstylists and craftsmen into a profession of high ethical standards and to motivate the average hairdresser into realizing that he or she is part of a vast and growing industry, the affiliate officer said.

She noted that modern day hairdressing actually began in 1872 when Marcel Graeu of Paris, France, completed his first unbroken wave with the use of a hot curling iron.

In 1919 the first cosmetology legislation was enacted within a state and resulted in the first National Hairdressers Association being formed in Chicago in 1921.

Mrs. Scott said St. Louis was the site of the second convention and each succeeding year more than 1,000 hairdressers have convened for the educational conferences in different metropolitan areas.

Representatives of the national organization regularly meet with Congressional leaders to refine laws promoting safeguards for the public and beauty industry, the Affiliate 33 president said.

Visit to ancient tombs described to Travelers

Travelers Abroad opened its season last week at Prather Junior High School, with Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Johnson of Madison showing pictures of their recent trip to the Nile Valley and the Sinai Peninsula.

Johnson described the cliff tombs on the Theban Necropolis, a cemetery in southern Egypt, where the burial site of a little-known king, Tutakhamun (King Tut), is located.

The sepulchre, modest in structure, was filled with a variety of small silver and precious stones when discovered intact in 1924 by Lord Carnarvon and Howard Carter, Johnson said.

Only its obscure location saved the tomb from ransacking by grave robbers as occurred at burial sites of other ancient Pharaohs, the speaker said.

Canon George Zabriskie of Christ Church Cathedral, St. Louis, will describe his 10 years in the Philippine Islands at the Travelers' next meeting on Oct. 29.

Wins speaking contest

A six-minute speech entitled "A Challenge," urging everyone to become involved in helping the people of the inner city, won Michael J. Siebert of Granite City the second round of the Reader's Digest national speaking contest at the Bel Air East Motel, St. Louis.

"I really think I was lucky, as there were some really well-delivered speeches there," young Siebert commented concerning the Area Three competition.

Siebert now will compete with winners of other areas on Oct. 13 at Columbia, Mo. The winner of that round then will compete in the national semi-finals at Kansas City, Mo. The national finals are to be held during February 1974 in Washington, D. C.

Siebert, 17, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Siebert, 3015 Iowa St., was chosen in local competition by a committee headed by Lester Bickel, assistant superintendent of schools at Collinsville.

The 17 local Scout councils of Area Three were allowed two entries, one from an Explorer Post and one from a Boy Scout Troop.

Siebert, who represented the Explorer Division of the Cahokia Mound Council, is a member of Explorer Post 104, a law enforcement specialty post sponsored by the Madison Police Department and the Madison Lions club.

He is a member of the Granite City High School-South debating team and the National Forensic League. He is a member of Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

Qualifications to enter the contest were that the boy must be an Eagle Scout, at least 14 years of age, be an active member in either a Scout Troop or Explorer Post, and be an active member of a religious institution.

McKendree drive goal $190,000

McKendree College's 1973-74 financial goal of $190,000 is the highest in the school's history, but directors of the fund drive expect to raise even more than that.

"Because of our success last year—and we feel successful because we came within $2,000 of our goal—we have every anticipation of going over the goal during this campaign," said Raymond Devery, vice-president of development at McKendree.

Last year's goal was $180,000, and the college raised $148,650. It will take more to keep private liberal arts college running this year, Devery said, because of the special academic programs added to the curriculum last year.

Ten thousand dollars more will go towards scholarships for military personnel, and just plain rising costs.

The higher goal means harder work for those who must raise it and Devery said they plan on using new methods. These include personal visits by college trustees to business and foundations, and more contacts made with St. Louis corporations.

"The bulk of the donations still come from club members," Devery said, so club members will be conducted more vigorously than ever before.

College clubs are the Century

Club, for those who give from $100 to $200 to the school during a year; the Tower Club, $200 to $299; McKendree Associates, $200 to $299; and the President's Challenge Club, $1,000 to $2,999.

Devery plans on challenge giving—where college personnel pledge to raise for McKendree the same amount given by a donor—to stimulate membership in the newest club, the McKendree Oaks. Members of this club give at least $100 to the school.

Devery has broken down the donations expected from various groups, besides clubs, as follows: Trustees, $50,000; Alumni, $45,000; Associated Colleges of Illinois, Inc., $25,000; Individuals, $34,000; Corporations and Foundations, $20,000; parents of students, $10,000; churches, $3,000; faculty and staff, $2,000 and women's society, $1,000.

Devery predicts going over the goal this year.

"Because of our success last year—and coming within $2,000 of our goal is a success—we have every anticipation of going over the goal during this campaign."

McKendree, the oldest college in Illinois, is one of the few private colleges in the nation which have finished the last two fiscal years "in the black."

So far, fall enrollment at the college is up 16 per cent, and registration will continue for another week.

Lions to publish calendar

The Venice Lions Club again will publish a birthday and event calendar. Philip Smith, chairman of the project, announced at last week's meeting of the Venice club in the St. Mark's parish house in Venice.

Lion President Edward Foley appointed Charles Simmons, William "Mike" Ebersold and Albert Pace to serve on the calendar committee with Smith. Foley announced that the calendar will be published by I-G Governor Manuel L. Lopez.

will officially visit the club Oct. 28.

Ebersold reported that he was very much impressed by the facilities of the local hospital when he attended the St. Elizabeth open house, representing the Lions Club two weeks ago.

Foley announced that he and the Lions secretary, Bill Blackburn, will attend a zone meeting at Sportsman's Club in Madison tonight.

United Way gifts increase in Madison

Every person who has been solicited for a United Way contribution in Madison substantially has increased his gift, Leo Schermer, vice-president of the United Way, told the Madison Rotary Club at its meeting in the Madison Recreation Center last week.

"If we want to keep the area a better place in which to live, we must increase our gifts this year and at least make a fair share pledge," he said.

"The United Way supports its agencies throughout the year and these agencies do a fantastic job helping others." "The Quad-Cities are not a low-income area. The majority of families here earn over $15,000 a year. This was brought out in a recent survey," Schermer emphasized.

S. J. "Pete" Nasir, United Way executive director, was a guest of the club and assisted Schermer in answering questions about the campaign that began officially Tuesday noon.

William E. Griggs, 1030 Market St., Venice, became the newest member of the Madison Rotary by vote of the club.

Ask the Governor

Q. Overburdened small-home owners are on the verge of a tax revolt because ever-increasing real estate taxes are forcing them out of their homes and because appeals for relief have fallen on deaf ears. Working class people are saying: We understand that we should pay our fair share of real estate taxes and we don't object to that. But we are sick and tired of the fat cats getting off scot-free while our property taxes go up, and up, and up. Tax the big boys, then we'll come in and pay our fair share. What can be done?

A. Nobody yet has come up with a formula that will provide for a freeze and at the same time provide headroom for school districts and areas that are newly developing, where new homes are being built, and where you must have more policemen and firemen, plus more schools.

I would love to see a property tax freeze that would be equitable to everyone. But we don't have such a formula and, until we get one, all I can say is: We'll keep on trying.

A major problem is assessments. They are not being imposed equitably all over the state. Some large taxpayers are getting away with murder in terms of their assessments. We will go a long way toward producing a more equitable system if we can make sure that all property is assessed uniformly and that the big plant does not get a break that the home owner does not get.

Q. You mentioned before that you weren't going to increase taxes, or you hoped you would not have to. What kind of funding will be coming in the near future - let's say the next two or three years - for monies to the school districts, since we have such a problem these days to get bond issues approved by the voters?

A. Funding for education is a problem. The largest increase that I proposed in my budget for this current fiscal year was for education - $134 million more than last year. That's the largest increase in Illinois history without an increase in taxes. This enabled us to move up substantially from about 38 percent to 40 percent the state's share of the cost of primary and secondary education. I hope that we can continue to make that kind of progress. But I do have to say this about education. The state is pouring more and more money into education and I think it should, but I think the people are also entitled to ask: How is this money being spent? Because in some areas of this state, while there is a vast increase of money, kids haven't learned even to read, as they should. The quality of education is not being improved.

See money, I hope that we can continue to make that kind of progress. But I do have to say this about education. The state is pouring more and more money into education and I think it should, but I think the people are also entitled to ask: How is this money being spent? Because in some areas of this state, while there is a vast increase of money, kids haven't learned even to read, as they should. The quality of education is not being improved. Because in some areas of this state, while there is a vast increase of money, kids haven't learned even to read, as they should. The quality of education is not being improved.

Q. Illinois is ranked almost at the bottom in the amount of acres of outdoor recreation land per capita in the U.S. The past two administrations had a policy of acquiring more land. I didn't notice anything in your budget where you allowed for this.

A. We have provided funds for more land acquisition - but I think there has been too little attention paid to using our money to open up that land right away for people who want to get out of doors. The people I talk to don't want manicured parks. They would just as soon go out and walk through the woods. They don't care about having a great big fancy comfort station as long as there are reasonably good facilities. I'm dedicated to seeing that we use the resources we have now - to open up that land that has been banked and make it usable. At the same time we will develop a reasonable program of acquiring land.

Gov. Dan Walker invites you to question him about state government and what state government should be doing for people. All questioners will be answered by letter by Gov. Walker and some of the questions and answers will appear, probably condensed, in this column. Letters must be signed and an address provided. Send to: ASK THE GOVERNOR, Illinois Information Service, 105 State Office Building, Springfield, Illinois 62706.

The first few columns will use questions and answers from Gov. Walker's availability sessions being held throughout the state. As soon as the mail develops, the governor will use the mailed questions.

GC scholarships raised

Grants to be awarded by the Granite City Scholarship Foundation in the coming year will be $500 each instead of $400 as in past years, Foundation President Omar Ronk has announced.

Speaking for the Scholarship Foundation Council following its initial meeting of the new school year, Ronk said, "We made this move because, like everything else, tuition costs are higher, and of course, $400 won't buy as much as it would in the past."

Officers for the new year were elected at the council meeting held in the office of James Dumont, principal of Granite City High School. South. Ronk, representing Prairie Farms Dairy, Inc., was named to a second one-year term as president of the foundation. Other incumbent officers re-elected were: vice-president, Peggy Solberger, representing Minerva Women's Club; Treasurer, Robert Spengler, Twilight Optimists; recording secretary, Anita Edmoff, American Association of University Women.

New corresponding secretary is Norman Garrett, representing the Torch Club, Granite City Steel Co. Area industry, business and civic organizations make up the Scholarship Foundation which encourages and assists graduates of the Granite City high schools to enter an accredited college.

Recipients are chosen each year in May on the basis of financial need, scholastic ability, and their purpose in pursuing a college education. Seniors from both Granite City high schools - South and North - will be eligible to apply. Details will be well-publicized at the two schools.

Two committee chairmen were selected by Ronk. They are Mrs. Solberger, screening, and John McDonald, Granite City Optimists, financial. Principal Dumont announced that Roy McConkey and Miss Selma Nelson will be coordinating counselors for GC High - South, and North principal Gilbert Walmsley, named Charlotte Gauen and Bill Briedenbach as counselors at that school. Ronk noted that contributions for full or partial scholarships will be welcomed, adding, "Any group or organization wishing to contribute may do so by sending a check, payable to 'Granite City Scholarship Foundation,' to Robert Spengler, 3666 Terrace Lane, Granite City, Ill. 62040."

Governor completes action on 1,114 legislative bills

Gov. Dan Walker last week completed action on 1,114 bills sent to him by the 78th Illinois General Assembly during its last session from Jan. 10 to July 2.

By law the governor had until Sept. 23 to complete action on the bills. He completed action on Sept. 21. Of the 1,114 bills passed, 658 were House bills and 456 Senate bills. The governor approved 544 House bills and 341 Senate bills. One House bill was filed without his signature. One bill which he vetoed was overridden by the General Assembly, becoming a law. Gov. Walker vetoed 78 House bills and 81 Senate bills; returned with specific recommendation for changes 27 House bills, two of which became law when the General Assembly agreed to the recommendations.

He returned 12 Senate bills; reduced the appropriation on five House bills and 10 Senate bills; vetoed in part six Senate bills; and reduced the appropriation and vetoed in part two House bills and six Senate bills.

The 78th General Assembly will reconvene Oct. 15 to reconsider bills returned and vetoed by the governor.

Housing authority to construct new facility

A new office and warehouse facility will be constructed by the Madison County Housing Authority across the street from its present location at 1600 Market St., Madison, according to Ed Foley, executive director. Foley said a construction contract was awarded by the authority's board of commissioners to Ed Moore, general contractor of Granite City, who submitted a low bid of $55,900 among six bidders. The contract is subject to approval by the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development the director noted.

The present housing authority office and storage area will be converted into a community center for Garesche-Greiner Homes tenants, Foley said.

Today, October 1st, 1973, a law that has been enacted by the State Legislative Body, and signed by Governor Walker will become effective giving you the right to drink beer and wine.

We at Jacobsmeyer's welcome you to our establishment. We sincerely hope that this new privilege granted you will not be abused, and that you will accept this privilege by conducting yourselves as ladies and gentlemen and joining those older than you that have had the right to drink these past years, by displaying your ability to be accepted as mature men and women.

We hope that you won't be embarrassed if you are asked to show PROOF OF AGE, or that that you are only allowed to drink beer and wine, but in order for us to comply with the law, we have to ask these questions, and make these statements.

This law will be on a trial basis for the ensuing year, and anyone that violates it will be prosecuted.

If this new law is accepted by you in the coming months, and you prove your ability to consume these alcoholic beverages in moderation, future legislation could give you the right to consume all alcoholic beverages, or your present right could be rescinded.

Again we welcome you to Jacobsmeyer's and hope we will have may friendly, sociable relations in the years to come.
